

Study of Potensd of Building Structures of Tehran for Progress of green spaces

Dr.M.Kafi

One of the impotrant problem of living in urbon is excessing of population and increase of pollution. green space is a important method for decress of this pollution. If we study of our potencial of houses and company structure for planting, we can increase of area of green spaces. In this paper we studid of building structures for will shown of methods for planting of plant. One years of research was shown seven types of structure. In this paper we want to explain all of the methods of using this pothencials for increase of green space area.